

Sunday, September 9, 2018

VOICES Resiliency Symposium

Knowledge to Practice: Pathways to Long-Term Healing

A Victim-Centered Approach

Monday, September 10, 2018

17th Annual Information Forum

Reflecting, Remembering, and Inspiring a Resilient Community

Comeback Season Presentation featuring ESPN's Mike Greenberg

Marriott Downtown Hotel | 85 West Street | New York City

Register at www.voicesofseptember11.org or 203-966-3911

VOICES Resiliency Symposium - September 9

- Multi-generational Impacts of Trauma
- Research and Treatment of PTSD and Anxiety
- Giving Voice to Victims' Families and Survivors
- Vicarious and Shared Trauma
- Responding to Tragedy: A National and International Perspective
- Healing Through Mindfulness Practice

17th Annual Information Forum - September 10

- WTCHP Medical Treatment Updates
- WTCHP Mental Health Interventions and Research
- Victim Compensation Programs
- Coping with Grief and Bereavement
- Promoting Resiliency in Families, Survivors and Responders
- Victims' Families Advocating For Reforms
- Peer-to-Peer Networking
- Mindfulness Practice
- Comeback Season: Sports After 9/11

Complimentary tickets available to 9/11 Memorial Museum

Register at www.voicesofseptember11.org or 203-966-3911

Victims' Families, Survivors, Responders: No Charge

WTC Health Program Partners: No Charge

Symposium Fee: $75 | Students: $50 | Exhibitor Table: $150

80 Main Street
New Canaan, CT 06840

Thanks to Our Sponsors

World Trade Center Health Program FealGood Foundation
Turken & Heath, LLP Barasch & McGarry Kreindler & Kreindler