Good afternoon,

As discussed during the law firm meeting on January 25, 2023, of which the notes are now available, the VCF has started its rollout of information about the VCF Transformation, which will be regularly updated throughout the year as the new system is developed, and we get closer to the launch of myVCF in early 2024.

Two separate pages dedicated to transformation are now live on vcf.gov:

- A general Transformation page, which includes background information on the Transformation, frequently asked questions, and information on what changes claimants can expect to see with myVCF. We encourage you to become familiar with this information and direct your claimants to this page for their awareness.
- Transformation Information for Law Firms, which includes content specifically for law firms, including updates based on the January 25, 2023, VCF law firm meeting, information on myVCF specifically for law firms, and guidance on actions you should take to begin preparing for the new system and process.

All attorneys working with VCF claimants are expected to remain up to date on the information posted to both the main Transformation page and the Transformation Information for Law Firms page. You will be notified via email each time an update is posted.

Please direct any questions to our law firm liaisons.

Thank you.
