Good morning,

The VCF has just published our most recent Premature and Insufficient Claims Report with data through July 31, 2023. As a reminder, an explanation of the report can be found in the Understanding the Premature and Insufficient Claims Report document.

Law firms with 500 or more submitted claims will continue to receive a unique report card providing them with their overall premature and insufficient claim statistics, as well as a detailed report identifying the missing information by claim. This report will be generated monthly for those firms.

We encourage all law firms to continue to address missing information letters as soon as possible, and to only submit complete claims.

Thank you.
